HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor directs that the despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies and the enclosure mentioned therein, printed hereunder, be published for general information.

HENRY ESSON YOUNG,
Provincial Secretary.

DOWNING STREET,
24th June, 1915.

CANADA.
No. 581.
SIR,—

I have the honour to transmit to Your Royal Highness, for the information of your Ministers, a copy of a notice published in the press on the 15th June, containing information for the guidance of persons desiring to record:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

2. The Foreign Claims Office referred to in the last paragraph of the notice has been set up at the Foreign Office for the purpose of dealing with all claims for the settlement of which no satisfactory machinery has existed hitherto, and which are foreign in the sense that they are claims by British subjects against a foreign Government or by foreign nationals against His Majesty's Government.

I have, etc.,
A. BONAR LAW.

The Governor-General,
His Royal Highness
The Duke of Connaught and of Strathearn, K.G., etc., etc.

BRITISH PROPERTY IN ENEMY COUNTRIES.

HOW TO RECORD CLAIMS.

WE are officially informed that it has been arranged that the Public Trustee shall keep a record of:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

Any person desiring to record such claims or property can obtain the necessary form for that purpose (Form G in the first case and Form H in the second) from the Public Trustee. Applications should be made to the Public Trustee (Trading with the Enemy Department), No. 2 Clement's Inn, Strand, W.C.

It must be clearly understood that the action of the Public Trustee will be confined to entering upon the record claims of which particulars are supplied to him, and that in no way commits His Majesty's Government either to responsibility for the correctness of the claim entered or to taking any action on the conclusion of hostilities or otherwise for the recovery of the debts or property in question.

The Public Trustee will record claims against enemy Governments in respect of public securities of those Governments held by the claimants, but other claims against enemy Governments (e.g., in respect of goods or property requisitioned or sequestered) as distinct from claims against enemy subjects should be notified to the Director of the Foreign Claims Office, Foreign Office, S.W.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER.
VICTORIA, 7th February, 1917.

PRESENT:
THE HONOURABLE THE ADMINISTRATOR
IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of the "Court Rules of Practice Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, the Honourable the Administrator of British Columbia, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

1. During the war no probate of a will or letters of administration of the estate of any German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject, wherever resident, shall be granted in respect of any assets in this country without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance.

2. In all cases where probate or letters of administration are granted during the war to any person entitled thereto, the grant shall be made upon the condition that no portion of the assets shall be distributed or paid during the war to any beneficiary or creditor who is a German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject, wherever resident, or to any one on his behalf, or to or on behalf of any person resident in Germany, Austro-Hungary, Turkey, or Bulgaria, of whatever nationality, without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance; and if any distribution or payment is made contrary to this condition the grant of probate or letters of administration will be forthwith revoked.

3. Any applicant for letters of administration or probate during the war shall furnish evidence to the satisfaction of the Judge to whom application is made that the person in respect to whose estate such probate or letters of administration are applied for was not a German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject; or, failing such evidence, shall produce the licence of the Crown that such probate or letters of administration may be granted. Such applicant shall also give such information as the Registrars of the Courts may require in order to ascertain whether any of the assets would in time of peace be distributable or payable to any such subject, and if required shall make a statutory declaration as to the assets and their disposition in the event of probate or letters of administration being granted.

4. In cases deemed by him proper, the Minister of Finance may sanction the payment of moderate sums out of assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subjects resident in Canada at the commencement of the war and during the war.

And that the Orders in Council herein, Nos. 741 and 1201, be rescinded.

JOHN DUNCAN MACLEAN,
fe8 Clerk of the Executive Council.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO
PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or other wise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relates to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

THORNTON FELL,

Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered under the above Act are:—

To build, purchase, rent, or otherwise acquire steamships, steam-tugs, sailing-vessels, barges, lighters, and other craft of every kind and description, and to maintain and operate the same in all lawful business upon the oceans, seas, sounds, tide-waters, rivers, and canals for the transportation for hire of passengers, freight, mails, goods, wares, merchandise, animals, and other property and material of all kinds and nature whatsoever:

To carry on the business of receiving, storing, carrying, transporting, and delivering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise and property of every kind and description for freight or other hire between port or ports of the United States or any foreign port or ports:

To purchase, lease, erect, or otherwise acquire wharves, piers, warehouses, dry-docks, and other buildings, and to operate the same for public hire; to carry on a general wharfage and warehouse business, and in connection therewith store goods and merchandise, dock ships and boats of every kind and description, load and unload the same, issue storage and warehouse receipts covering all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, and collect and receipt for wharfage, dockage, and other dues:

To generally carry on all and any of the business of ship-owners, ship-brokers, charterers, managers of shipping property, freight contracts, carriers by land and sea, barge-owners, lightermen, forwarding agents, merchantmen, warehousemen, wharfingers, and general traders:

To buy, lease, and otherwise acquire real estate and to improve the same; carry on farming and horticultural operations, maintain and operate fruit and vegetable canning and packing plants, and carry on a mercantile business in connection with such farming operations:

To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and operate coal-mines, coal lands, bunkers, docks, tugs, barges, steamers, and tramways; to buy and sell coal, both wholesale and retail, and in connection therewith to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire office buildings, storage-yards, automobile-trucks, wagons, horses, and equipment of every kind and description, and to operate the same:

To carry on a general baggage, transfer, and hauling business, and in connection therewith to purchase or otherwise acquire automobiles, horses, wagons, drays, motor-trucks, and other vehicles of every kind for the purpose of transferring baggage and merchandise of every kind from one point in the City of Seattle to another point in said city; to own, equip, and operate taxicabs, hacks, automobiles, and carriages and other vehicles for the purpose of carrying and transporting passengers from one point in the City of Seattle to other points, and to charge fares to such passengers therefor; to enter into contracts with railroads, transportation companies, corporations, hotels, and private individuals for the transfer, hauling, and handling of freight, baggage, merchandise, and passengers to, from, and between points within the said City of Seattle:

To manufacture, buy, sell on commission or otherwise, import, export, repair, and generally deal in all kinds of automobiles, motor-trucks, motor-engines, machines, machinery, machine supplies, engineering appliances, and all kinds of vehicles operating by steam, electricity, or other forms of power for the transportation of passengers and merchandise, and in connection therewith to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real or personal property, construct, erect, lease, or otherwise acquire and maintain storehouses, warehouses, repair-shops, show and display rooms, garages, and buildings of every description.

Second: To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold, with the same rights of ownership therein that may be permitted to natural persons, the stocks, shares, bonds, and obligations of any corporation organized under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States or of any foreign country:

To borrow money on notes, bonds, debentures, or otherwise for the carrying-on of the general purposes of this corporation, and generally to do all things proper, necessary, or convenient to be done in the furtherance of the main business of this corporation, either within or without the State of Washington, and to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Washington on corporations of this character.

Said Corporation shall have general power:—

(a.) To sue and be sued in any Court of competent jurisdiction:

(b.) To make and use a corporate seal, and to alter the same at pleasure:

(c.) To purchase, hold, mortgage, sell, and convey real and personal property:

(d.) To appoint such officers or agents and servants as the business of the corporation shall require; to define their powers, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation, and to require of them such security as may be thought proper for the fulfilment of their duties, and to remove them at will, except that no trustee shall be removed from office unless by a vote of two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) in amount of the stockholders:

(e.) To make by-laws not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Washington or of the United States:

To provide for the management of and proper regulation of the affairs of the corporation, and for the transfer of its stock, for the carrying-on of all kinds of business within the objects and purposes of the corporation, as expressed in these articles of incorporation. oc4

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3521 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "New York Outfitting Company, Dresswell on Easy Terms, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty thousand dollars, divided into twenty thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on under the firm, style, and name of "Holloway and Stanger," and operating the store known as the New York Outfitting Company, being located in the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, together with all or any of the assets and liabilities of the stores hereinbefore mentioned, together with the goodwill, trade-name, trade debts owing to the said partnership hereinbefore mentioned:

(b.) To take over the business of Holloway and Stanger in the store known as the New York Outfitting Company, and to extend the same throughout the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, and to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire and may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the said business:

(c.) To carry on all or any of the business of clothiers, dry-goods merchants, dealers in staple and fancy dry-goods, furriers, haberdashers, hosiers, manufacturers, and importers, wholesale and retail dealers of and in textile fabrics of all kinds, tailors, hatters, outfitters, gloves, booth and shoemakers, ladies' ready-to-wear, manufacturers in ladies' ready-to-wear, millinery, either by way of wholesale or retail, and generally to carry on the business of general traders, and merchants of any mercantile business of any kind whatsoever:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company:

(e.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade:

(f.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit of or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions:

(h.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to secure the repayment of the same in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular, without restricting the generality of the next preceding clause, by the issue of the debenture or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's undertaking and property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof from time to time for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular without restricting the generality of the next preceding clause, for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures, or securities among the members of the Company in specie:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, warehouse receipts, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To apply for any Acts of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, engage, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property, rights, and privileges of the Company:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(o.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(p.) To do all such things as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(q.) To assist in manufacturing or manufacture any wares in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to enter into any arrangements with any manufacturers or others, in the Province or elsewhere, for the purpose of the Company's object in manufacturing, preparing, or otherwise obtaining ready-made men's and women's wares on such terms and conditions as the said Company may see fit for the purpose of enabling to establish and carry on the business aforesaid. oc4

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any interests in any invention, patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt with, and in particular to acquire from S. W. Miller, of Vancouver, B.C., the benefit of certain existing inventions in relation to automobile head-lights and lenses therefor; and with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect the agreement referred to in clause 4 of the articles of association of this Company, with such modification as may seem expedient:

(b.) To use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, and any secret or other information as to any invention:

(c.) To carry on business as manufacturers of automobile head-lights, lenses, and head-lights of all kinds, and of all articles and things used in the manufacture, maintenance, and working thereof, and also all apparatus and implements and things for use in, on, or about automobiles:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any interests in any trade-marks, copyrights, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect thereof, or otherwise turn to account any such trade-marks or copyrights:

(e.) To have manufactured, buy, sell, exchange, alter, import, export, and deal in automobile head-lights and lenses, and in all kinds of plant, machinery, apparatus, tools, utensils, substances, materials, and things necessary or convenient for carrying on any of the above-specified businesses or proceedings or usually dealt in by persons engaged in the like:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to sell, exchange, surrender, lease, mortgage, charge, convert, turn to account, dispose of, and deal with property and rights of all kinds, in any particular, concessions, options, contracts, patents, annuities, licences, mortgages, debentures, stocks, shares, bonds, policies, book debts, business concerns and undertakings, and claims, privileges, and choses in action of all kinds:

(g.) To subscribe for, conditionally or unconditionally, to underwrite, issue on commission or otherwise, take, hold, deal in, and convert stocks, shares, and securities of all kinds, and to enter into partnership or into any other arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operate with any person, partnership, or company, and to promote, constitute, form, incorporate, or organize companies, syndicates, or partnerships of all kinds for the purpose of acquiring or undertaking property, rights, or liabilities of this Company, or of advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, or for any other purpose for which this Company may think expedient:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property or assets:

(i.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall see fit:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partially paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, patents, brevets d'invention, or rights in connection therewith, or for services rendered to the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may be from time to time determined:

(m.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members either by way of dividends or otherwise:

(n.) To register or license the Company in any other Province of the Dominion of Canada and in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(o.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, or advertising of the Company:

(p.) To do all such things and to carry on such business as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(q.) And it is hereby declared that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraphs, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc4

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3523 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Wallace Foundry Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into seventy-five thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of North Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on the business of ironfounders, mechanical engineers, marine engineers, manufacturers of oil-burners and oil-burning machinery, agricultural implements, and other machinery, tool-makers, brassfounders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smiths, wood-workers, builders, painters, metallurgists, electrical engineers, water-supply engineers, gas makers, printers, carriers, and merchants; and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, and hardware of all kinds, and to carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of any of the Company's property and rights for the time being:

(2.) To carry on any business relating to the winning and working of minerals, the production and working of metals, and the production, manufacture, and preparation of any other materials which may be usefully or conveniently combined with the engineering or manufacturing business of the Company, or any contracts undertaken by the Company, and either for the purpose only of such contracts or as an independent business:

(3.) To undertake and execute any contracts for works involving the supply or use of any machinery, and to carry out any ancillary or other works comprised in such contracts:

(4.) To construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control public works and conveniences of all kinds, which expression in this memorandum includes tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, roads, embankments, irrigation, reclamation, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic, and power-supply works, and hotels, warehouses, markets, and public buildings and all other works or conveniences of public utility:

(5.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, and concessions for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, control of public works and conveniences, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(6.) To carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineers, suppliers of electricity for the purposes of light, heat, sound, motive power, or otherwise, and manufacturers of and dealers in all apparatus and things required for or capable of being used in connection with the generation, distribution, supply, accumulation, and employment of electricity:

(7.) To purchase, acquire, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, or deal in any lands, real estate, mines, mining rights in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere or any interest therein:

(8.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control, and superintend any roads, ways, tramways, pits, shafts, drifts, levels, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, drains, aqueducts, pipes, wharves, furnaces, sawmills, machinery-works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, stores, coal-banks, and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations:

(9.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire steam and other ships or vessels, with all equipments and furniture, and to employ the same for all or any purpose in connection with the Company's business or undertaking, or in the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and to carry on the business of carriers by land and water, ship-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(10.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade; to invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(11.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(12.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(13.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(14.) To make and to enter into agreements and contracts with any person or persons, company or companies, Government or corporation as the Company may deem advisable:

(15.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for same to pay cash or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or stocks or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(16.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(17.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(18.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligation of any such company:

(19.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(20.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(21.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(22.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(23.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company, upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other company:

(24.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(25.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(26.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc4

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the City of Vancouver and its neighbourhood, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(b.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(c.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on, upon, or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same, or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(d.) To establish and carry on, and to promote the establishment and carrying on, upon any property in which the Company is interested, of any business which may be conveniently carried on, upon, or in connection with such property, and the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property, or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(e.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any land or buildings in which the Company is interested:

(f.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(g.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorized or intending to carry on, any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(i.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way, and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(j.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(k.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligations or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company, and otherwise, as may be thought fit:

(l.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, and procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon the London or Foreign, Colonial or Provincial Stock Exchanges of any of such shares or securities:

(m.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payments of the principal of, or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase for shares or otherwise of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase for shares or otherwise of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profits-sharing arrangement with any company or person:

(o.) To take all the necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(p.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(q.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(r.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Walsh Construction Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To acquire, take over by purchase or otherwise, in any way whatsoever, all or part of the stock-in-trade, plant, fixtures, fittings, furniture, book accounts, patents, leases, and all other goods and chattels and personal property which form part or all of the assets of any other person, firm, or corporation, and particularly of the firm of Walsh Construction Company, subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof, or any part thereof, or otherwise, as may be agreed, and also all or part of the stock-in-trade, plant, fixtures, fittings, furniture, book accounts, patents, leases, and all other goods and chattels and real and personal property which form part of any business, whether wholesale or retail, whatsoever and wheresoever situate, and whether now being carried on or which may at any time be carried on, and either subject to the whole or any part of the liabilities thereof or otherwise, as may be agreed, and in any or either of the above cases to pay for the same either in money or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares of the Company, said shares to be either partly or fully paid up:

(2.) To construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control, in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, public and private works and conveniences of all kinds, which expression in this memorandum includes tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamation, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic, and power-supply works, and hotels, warehouses, markets, and buildings, public and private, of every nature and kind, and all other works or conveniences of public or private utility:

(3.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, and concessions for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of such works and conveniences, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(4.) To carry on the business of miners, metallurgists, builders and contractors, engineers, farmers, graziers, ship-owners, ship-builders, merchants, importers, and exporters, and to buy, sell, and deal in property of all kinds:

(5.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of lumber, lath, shingles, shingle-bolts, timber, sash, door, and every kind of article and thing manufactured from the aforesaid or any of them, or used in connection therewith:

(6.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise patents for the manufacture of the same and any improvements therein, and to pay for the same either in stock of the Company, or partly in stock of the Company and partly in cash:

(7.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of, dealers in, importers and exporters of dry-goods, millinery, boots and shoes, machinery, films, circulars, and merchandise of every kind and description, whether included in the classes above mentioned or otherwise, and to buy and sell by wholesale or retail, in the Province of British Columbia, all kinds of dry-goods, millinery, boots and shoes, machinery, films, circulars, and merchandise of every kind and description:

(8.) To carry on the business of either wholesale or retail merchants or manufacturers, dealing in or manufacturing any and all kinds and descriptions of goods, wares, or merchandise, machinery, mill supplies, mine supplies, general supplies, and other chattels whatsoever, and particularly, but without affecting or restricting the generality of the foregoing, either together or separate, the business of lumber merchants, grocers, hardware merchants, druggists, fuel merchants, boot and shoe merchants, or merchants dealing in sporting goods, dry-goods, and fancy goods:

(9.) Subject to paragraph (32) hereof, to lend money upon the security of any and all kinds and descriptions of real and personal property, wheresoever situate, and particularly, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, mortgages (whether first or subsequent) and agreements for sale, either real or personal property, stocks, shares, debenture stocks and bonds, debentures, bonds, securities, charter-parties, bills of exchange, bills of lading, and deposit receipts and contracts:

(10.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on the property controlled by the Company, or elsewhere where the Company shall have the right, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, dry-kilns, smelters, refuse-burners, refining and reduction works, sawmills, pulp and paper mills or other kind of mills, manufacturing plants of all kinds and descriptions, hydraulic works, electric works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, provisions, chattels, and effects:

(11.) To acquire tracts of land or any interest therein with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots, and subdivide the same into lots and to do all things necessary to complete the said subdivision or subdivisions, and register the subdivision plans thereof, and to sell such lots according to the said subdivision or subdivisions:

(12.) To create and issue, at par or premium, debentures, debenture stock and bonds, mortgage debentures, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either perpetual or redeemable, or repayable with or without a bonus or otherwise; and either at a fixed date or by drawings, and collaterally to secure any securities of the Company by means of bonds or otherwise, trust deeds, and in case of uncalled capital to confer upon the encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls as the directors may think fit:

(13.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or any municipality or other source, authority, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, Statute, by-laws, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(14.) To purchase, lease, acquire, or take over the whole or any part of the assets, plant, equipment, stock, goods and chattels, lands and property, real and personal, of any business of a like or similar kind to the business herein set out or any of them, or of any person, firm, or company carrying on business either as a going concern or otherwise, and to assume any liabilities thereon, and to pay the same either in money or partly in shares of the Company, such shares to be partly or fully paid up:

(15.) Subject to paragraph (32) hereof, to undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit, and to carry on any such business which may be conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above businesses:

(16.) Subject to paragraph (32) hereof, to lend and advance moneys, goods, or supplies to such persons, firms, or corporations and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers or any persons, firms, or corporations having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, documents, or securities:

(17.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner or form as the Company may think fit, and by such means as may from time to time be necessary or deemed advisable for the purposes of the Company, and to issue bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other securities of the Company, and to mortgage, pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(18.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, or to amalgamate with any other corporation now or hereafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to reduce the capital by cancellation of shares:

(19.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(20.) To enter into any agreement with the Provincial or Dominion Government or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangement, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(21.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(22.) To guarantee the performance of contracts by customers and others having dealings with the Company, and by any other person, firm, or corporation:

(23.) To appoint agents or establish branch offices or agencies throughout the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere for the purpose of selling and otherwise disposing of the Company's products:

(24.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company, either partly or fully paid up:

(25.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(26.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(27.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for another purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(28.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(29.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, and to distribute and divide any lots of the Company amongst the members in such manner as may be deemed advisable, and to convey the same to such members:

(30.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(31.) To do all such other acts or things as are incidental, necessary, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally such powers and privileges as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by any authority whatsoever:

(32.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Regulation Act":

(33.) It is hereby declared and the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal manner, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

The head office of the Company is situate at the Town of Princeton, Province of British Columbia.

The Company is specially limited under section 131 of the above Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twelfth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire the Copper Farm Group of three mineral claims, situate about five miles east of Princeton, B.C., from Fred Freeman Foster, by payment therefor by the issue to him of 500,000 shares of fully paid-up stock in this Company:

(b.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(c.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, coal, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(d.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(f.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, coke-ovens, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purposes of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in nowise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

To carry on business as timber merchants, sawmill proprietors, lumbermen, lumber and shingle manufacturers, planing-mill, pulp-mill, and paper-mill owners, and to grow, manufacture, sell, import, export, and deal in saw-logs, timber, piles, poles, lumber, shingles, laths, sashes, doors, woodenware, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used:

(2.) To acquire by purchase, lease, licence, exchange, location, or otherwise, for such consideration as may be agreed upon, and to hold, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to sell, exchange, and deal in lands, leases, timber licences, timber berths, timber lands, mills, mill-sites, mill privileges, concessions, foreshore rights, stores, warehouses, machine-shops, driving rights, and other franchises, privileges, and property:

(3.) To carry on business as general traders and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, import, export, and deal in goods, wares, and merchandise:

(4.) To acquire, build, charter, operate, alienate, and convey steamers and steam-tugs, barges, or other vessels, or any interest or shares therein, requisite for the purposes of the Company, and to let out to hire or charter the same:

(5.) To acquire, construct, equip, operate, and control any roads, water-power plants, logging-railways (operated by steam, electricity, or other power), electric-supply lines, bridges, piers, docks, wharves, hydraulic works, electric works, gasworks, and other works calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest:

(6.) To carry on business as builders, contractors, and dealers in building materials:

(7.) To turn to account, utilize, or dispose of, in any legal manner whatsoever, the refuse from the mills or manufactories of the Company:

(8.) To construct, acquire, and operate all necessary erections and works for the purpose of collecting, driving, rafting, towing, holding, sorting, storing, delivering, and for all purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, logs, and lumber:

(9.) To clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts:

(10.) To avail itself of and have, hold, exercise, and enjoy all rights, powers, and privileges created, provided, or conferred by the "Water Act, 1914," or by any section or sections thereof, or which may hereafter, by any amendment thereto or by any substantive enactment relating to the matters therein dealt with, be created, provided, or conferred:

(11.) To carry on the business of carriers by land and water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(12.) To purchase, acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water powers and privileges, rights to build tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, docks, piers, booms, and other works, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit:

(13.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power, heat, and light company in all its branches:

(14.) To acquire, develop, and maintain mines, mineral claims, and mining rights, and to construct and operate all plants and appliances necessary to the profitable working of the same or any of them:

(15.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(16.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and deal with any patents, licences, concessions, copyrights, trade-marks, and the like, or any interest therein:

(17.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, and to acquire and hold shares or stock in, or securities of, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares, stock, or securities:

(18.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any Government or authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of or otherwise turn to account any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(19.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company or to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights:

(20.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(21.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada, in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(22.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other company:

(23.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money on any terms or conditions, and for these or other purposes to mortgage or charge the undertaking and all or any part of the property, assets, and rights of the Company, present or after acquired, including uncalled capital:

(24.) To invest, loan, or deal with such moneys of the Company as may not be immediately required, and to do so in any manner desired by the Company:

(25.) To distribute any of the property among the members in specie:

(26.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate, either by payment in cash or by the issue of fully paid-up shares in the capital stock of the Company, any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(27.) To promote companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(28.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(29.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(30.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. se27 building, and constructing of drains, ditches, aqueducts, sewers, roads, bridges, telegraph and telephone lines, including any and every branch of work involved in railway or tramway constructions and every other class of work, industry, or undertaking usually done or undertaken by builders or contractors, and to do the business and carry on the industries generally of that of a construction company:

(e.) To engage in the production and manufacture of, and to acquire and use for the Company's purpose, and to act as wholesale and retail dealers in builders' and contractors' supplies, materials, and accessories of every nature and kind whatsoever, and all classes of machinery, power, plant, tools, and appliances used by or useful for builders or contractors or construction companies for any such purpose:

(f.) To prepare estimates, plans, and specifications, and to submit tenders and enter into contracts for any of such works, and to give security for the completion of any of the Company's works, contracts, or undertakings by the bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company or otherwise, and on such terms as may be agreed upon from time to time:

(g.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, build, equip, and operate such transportation facilities by land or water as may be necessary to conduct the operations of the Company, and to carry on business as carriers of passengers, goods, wares, and merchandise:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to take and hold shares, bonds, debentures, and other assets or securities of any other corporation carrying on or interested in any trade, business, undertaking, or industry of a character similar to any of the Company's business or undertaking, or with which the Company shall have business relations, and while holding the same to exercise all rights and powers incidental to the ownership thereof, including the power to vote on such shares:

(i.) To take from any person, firm, or corporation, by way of security for any indebtedness due or accruing due to the Company, mortgages, liens, and other securities on any and every class of property, rights, or franchises, and debentures or other securities of such corporations; to sell and dispose of all such securities; to receive releases of all equities of redemption in properties over which the Company has a lien, charge, or mortgage, and to sell and dispose of all property acquired by way of security:

(j.) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the Company's entire undertaking, property, and assets, or any part or parts thereof, at any time or from time to time and for such consideration as the Company may see fit, and to accept in payment, either wholly or in part or by way of security for the purchase-money or rent, mortgages or liens thereon or the shares, bonds, or debentures of any other corporation, or any other form of security whatsoever that the Company may deem proper, and also to sell and dispose of and assign any such securities to any purchaser or assignee:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and to hold, utilize, and sell, patents of invention, trade-marks, and licences or concessions of any kind granting any exclusive or limited rights in respect of any article which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company; and to use, exercise, and develop or grant licences in respect to or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, or amalgamation with any other corporation, firm, or persons engaged in any line of business or business of a like character with any of the Company's business or operations on such terms as the Company may deem fit:

(m.) To engage in and carry on any other business which may be deemed desirable to be carried on in conjunction with any of the Company's business or undertakings:

(n.) To act as agent on commission, hire, or otherwise for others in pursuing any of the powers granted to the Company by its charter:

(o.) To acquire or take over by purchase, lease, or in any other way, on such terms as may be agreed upon, the business, industry, or undertaking of any person, firm, or corporation engaged in or having power to engage in any of the businesses or operations hereby authorized in whole or in part as a going concern or otherwise, and to carry on such business, industry, or undertaking:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To do all acts, deeds, and things necessary or convenient for the exercise of all or any of the powers of the Company or that may be deemed conducive to its interests:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province of British Columbia does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank-notes; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of the laws in force in British Columbia and regulations made thereunder in respect to the matters therein referred to, and especially with reference to the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special law and regulation may now or may hereafter be put in force. oc18

To carry on the business of hardware merchants, plumbers, and electricians; to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of metal goods, pipe-fittings, valves, hydrants, meters, mining (including oil), and milling (including cannery), machinery, equipment, and supplies, tools, cutlery, railway, ship, and electric supplies, building materials of all kinds, and all the materials, equipment, devices, and other things whatsoever necessary or useful in connection with the making, building, completing, equipping, installing, and maintaining of heating plants, kilns of all kinds, fire-protection systems and equipment, pumping, irrigation, and refrigeration plants, waterworks systems, boiler and engine connections, underground, power, and other piping; to act as general builders and contractors; to estimate and take contracts for the construction of any plant or plants used by or in connection with any of the above undertakings or things:

(b.) To manufacture any and all of the goods, materials, or other things used by, in, or in connection with any of the businesses above named, and to do all or any of the above things as principals or agents, both wholesale and retail, and either alone or in conjunction with any other person, persons, firm, or corporation:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, and to sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of, the real and personal property and every interest therein, and generally to deal and traffic in all kinds of real and personal property whatsoever:

(d.) To acquire, establish, and carry on any business or undertaking which may be conveniently carried on in connection with any of the foregoing:

(e.) For the purpose of the Company, to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(f.) For the purpose of the Company, to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(g.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Territory or Province in the Dominion of Canada or in any other Province, State, or place:

(h.) To do all such things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(i.) It is declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each of the foregoing paragraphs shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." oc18

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3516 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Brandram-Henderson of B.C., Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this nineteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on the business of dealers and general merchants in and exporters and importers of paints, oils, pigments, varnishes, white lead, red lead, and other lead products, barytes, glass, putty, and other general merchandise usually associated with the named products, and to manufacture any and all thereof, with power to carry on any business which may seem to the Company to be capable of being conveniently carried on in association with any of the foregoing, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's enterprises:

(b.) To apply for, obtain, and register, purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, assign, convey, transfer, or lease any mines or mining rights, mining locations, interests, or concessions, mineral or other lands, or interest in lands of any nature, description, or kind; to prospect, search for, exploit, explore, work, win, exercise, develop, and turn to account the same; to mine, mill, crush, quarry, smelt, calcine, corrode, refine, dress, amal-gamate, manipulate, and prepare for market ores, metals, coals, and mineral substances of all kinds; to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in ores, metals, coals, minerals and mineral substances, plant, machinery, implements, and conveniences, provisions, and things capable of being used in connection with the mining and manufacturing operations of the Company, or required by workmen or others employed by the Company:

(c.) To make, build, construct, erect, lay down, and maintain reservoirs, waterworks, aqueducts, cisterns, dams, culverts, main and other pipes and appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water for the creation, maintenance, or development of hydraulic, electrical, or other mechanical power, or for any other purpose of this Company:

(d.) To build, construct, carry out, maintain, improve, own, manage, work, control, operate, remove, replace, alter, or enlarge any roads, ways, tramways, bridges, piers, wharves, docks, machinery, appliances, dwellings for workmen, factories, warehouses, buildings, sawmills, crushing-works, and other works and conveniences to, in, along, or upon the mines or lands of the Company, or which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise take part in such operations: Provided that the Company shall not engage in the construction and working of railways or of telegraph or telephone lines for public purposes:

(e.) To construct, charter, hire, purchase, take in exchange, own, equip, maintain, operate, sell, let out, hire, charter, lease, or otherwise dispose of steamships, barges, sailing or other ships, vessels, craft of any class or description, with all equipment and furniture, and to employ the same with conveyance of persons and property between such ports in any part of the world as may seem expedient; and generally to carry on the business of ship-owners, carriers by water, warehousemen, wharfingers, and forwarding agents, and of engaging, receiving, transporting, and delivering merchandise upon freight or for hire, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any property or merchandise whatsoever for the purpose of freighting such steamships or other ships, vessels, or craft, and to dispose of the said property or merchandise by sale or otherwise:

(f.) To purchase or by other means acquire any freehold, leasehold, or other property, or any estate or interest whatever and any rights, privileges, or easements over or in respect of any property, and any buildings, warehouses, factories, mills, works, wharves, roads, railways, tramways, machinery, engines, rolling-stock, plant, live and dead stock, barges, vessels, or things, and any real or personal property or rights whatsoever which may to the Company seem to be necessary for or may be conveniently used with or may seem to the Company likely to enhance the value of any other property of the Company:

(g.) To act as agents or manufacturing agents or brokers for any person, firm, or company, and to undertake and perform sub-contracts, and also to act in any of the businesses of the Company through or by means of agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or others:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, grants, licences, leases, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention, process, or manufacture which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of this Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(i.) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company, or any other company in which this Company is or may be interested or concerned, or to contract with any person, firm, or company to pay the same, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling, or guaranteeing the subscriptions of any shares, bonds, debentures, or securities of this Company or of any other company as aforesaid:

(j.) To buy, sell, mortgage, and otherwise deal in and with property of every sort and description, both real and personal, for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To secure, take, and accept as security for the repayment of any debts or liabilities due to the Company by any person, firm, or corporation any policies of insurance, chattel mortgages, judgments, negotiable instruments, and paper and other securities and things of every kind and description as to the Company may seem expedient:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of moneys for the purposes of the Company in such manner, on such terms, and in such amounts as the Company shall from time to time think fit, and in particular by mortgage or pledge of the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, both present and future, or by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's real or personal property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital; and to redeem or to pay off any such mortgages, pledges, or securities, and to make and execute any mortgage or deed of trust of all or any of the property, present or future, of the Company for the purpose of securing or charging thereon such bonds, debentures, and debenture stock or any of them, or to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may assume:

(m.) To invest the moneys of the Company upon such securities, other than the shares of the Company, as may be from time to time determined:

(n.) To distribute proportionately to interest among the members of the Company in kind any property or product of the Company, and in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of other companies belonging or to belong to the Company:

(o.) To apply from time to time any part of the funds, stock, whether common or preferred, bonds, debentures, and other obligations of the Company for any purpose of the Company:

(p.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, partnership, or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(q.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and to hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(r.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(s.) To sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(u.) To do all or any of the above-mentioned things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all such acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(w.) If thought fit, to obtain an Act of the Legislature dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the Company's constitution.

Nothing herein contained shall authorize the carrying-on of the business of a bank, a loan company, a trust company, or an insurance company.

The clauses herein setting forth the powers of the Company are to be construed independently and no one of them as limiting any of the others. se27

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 3543 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Progress Publishing Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifteen thousand dollars, divided into fifteen hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To acquire and carry on as a going concern the business now carried on by James Herbert Hamilton and William Norman Code under the name of "Progress Publishing Company," and to take, acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, or exchange any buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, goodwill, registrations, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property whatsoever of any kind, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein which the Company may consider desirable in the interests of the Company's business, and to pay for the same in cash or shares or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(2.) To carry on business as proprietors and publishers of newspapers, journals, magazines, books, and other literary works and undertakings:

(3.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of printers, stationers, lithographers, typefounders, stereotypers, electrotypers, photographic printers, photolithographers, chromolithographers, engravers, die-sinkers, bookbinders, designers, draughtsmen, paper and ink manufacturers, booksellers, publishers, advertisers, advertising agents, engineers, and dealers in or manufacturers of any articles or things produced or used in the foregoing businesses or any of them or in connection therewith, and to acquire and conduct agencies for the sale or marketing of the same:

(4.) To establish competitions in respect of contributions or information suitable for insertion in any publication of the Company, or otherwise for any purposes of the Company, and to offer and grant prizes, rewards, and premiums of such character and on such terms as may seem expedient:

(5.) To undertake and transact all kinds of agency or business which an ordinary individual may legally undertake:

(6.) To provide for and furnish or secure to any member or customers of the Company, or to any subscribers to or purchasers or possessors of any publication of the Company, or of any coupon or ticket issued with any publication of the Company, any chattels, conveniences, advantages, benefits, or special privileges which may seem expedient, and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(7.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(8.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company heretofore or which may hereafter be carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which may be, directly or indirectly, conducive to carrying-on of the Company's business, or may be possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(9.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(10.) To finance or assist in financing any inventor of any process, machine, device, or mechanism which may seem likely to be of benefit for any of the Company's purposes or any of the branches thereof, and to develop, turn to account, manufacture, operate, and place on the market any by-products produced in the Company's operations which the Company may think to be commercially profitable:

(11.) To enter into any contracts or agreements relating to the acquisition of news and information of all kinds with any Government, person, agency, corporation, or institution at such prices and on such terms as may seem expedient:

(12.) To acquire the exclusive rights, either solely or jointly with other persons or corporations, to use any particular name, design, trade-mark, patent right, copyright, and other rights of the like kind, and to make use of, operate, sell, and dispose of same:

(13.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think convenient or necessary for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, profits a'prendre, machinery plant, and stock-in-trade:

(14.) To acquire from any Government (Provincial or municipal), authority, or other corporation or from any person any licences, leases, permits, rights-of-way, easements, or other property or rights which may seem conducive to any of the purposes of the Company, including, but without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing words, timber leases, timber licences, pulp leases, wharves, and wharf-sites, and generally to avail itself of the benefits of any Statutes or Acts of any Government or authority conferring the rights of acquiring any property or rights which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's purposes:

(15.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, or otherwise deal with the same:

(16.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(17.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company (or its predecessors in business), or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(18.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(19.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(20.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufacturing, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof, and to negotiate for and procure tramways or railways to run branches or sidings to the Company's premises:

(21.) To invest and deal with moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(22.) To borrow or raise and secure the payment of the money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by executing mortgages or assignments of all or any of the Company's assets, real or personal, or by creating and issuing debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(23.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(24.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(25.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(26.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(27.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(28.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of the clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc18

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Saturday, the 15th day of September, 1917.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

THE Committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 20th August, 1917, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that the Government of the Province of British Columbia has, under the terms of an agreement between that Government and the Government of the Dominion with reference to the mineral lands in the Railway Belt, as set out in the Order in Council dated 11th February, 1890, applied for a grant of the under-mentioned lands, and has complied with the provisions of the Order in Council dated 13th May, 1899, by filing the sworn declarations of John Vicars and Fred J. Dawson, Dominion Land Surveyors, to the effect that the lands in question are of no value for agricultural purposes, or for the timber growing thereon, and has paid therefor at the rate of $1 an acre, the sum of $97.37, the said lands being:—

That certain parcel or tract of land situate in Sections Seventeen and Twenty in the Twentieth Township, in the Nineteenth Range, west of the 6th meridian, comprising the Copper King Mineral Claim, being Lot One thousand four hundred and fifty-seven and those parts lying within the South-east Quarter of the said Section Twenty of the Britannia Fractional Mineral Claim, being Lot Two thousand five hundred and fifty-four, and of the Signorina Mineral Claim, being Lot Two thousand five hundred and fifty-five, all in the Kamloops Mining Division of the Yale District, in the Province of British Columbia, which said parcel may be more particularly described as follows:—

Beginning at a wooden post in a stone mound situated fifty-two feet and nine-tenths of a foot, more or less, north, and eight hundred and two feet and two-tenths of a foot, more or less, east from a wooden post and stone mound at the quarter-section corner on the north boundary of the said Section Seventeen; thence south twenty-three degrees and fifteen minutes east a distance of fifty-eight feet and one-tenth of a foot, more or less, to the point of intersection with the north boundary of the said Section Seventeen; thence westerly along the said north boundary a distance of two hundred and sixty-one feet and eight-tenths of a foot; thence south twenty-six degrees and forty-eight minutes west a distance of one thousand one hundred and eighty-six feet and three-tenths of a foot, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence north sixty-three degrees and twelve minutes west a distance of one thousand five hundred feet, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence north twenty-six degrees and forty-eight minutes a distance of seven hundred and fifty feet, more or less, to a wooden post; thence continuing on the same bearing a distance of seven hundred and fifty feet, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence south sixty-three degrees and twelve minutes east a distance of one thousand one hundred and four feet and one-tenth of a foot, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence north eighteen degrees and twenty-three minutes east a distance of one thousand one hundred and ninety-one feet and two-tenths of a foot, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence south seventy-one degrees and thirty-seven minutes east a distance of four hundred feet, more or less, to a wooden post; thence continuing on the same bearing a distance of one thousand one hundred feet, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence south eighteen degrees and twenty-three minutes west a distance of one thousand one hundred and eighty-one feet and three-tenths of a foot, more or less, to the point of intersection with the north boundary of the said Section Seventeen; thence westerly along the said north boundary a distance of eight hundred and eighteen feet and seven-tenths of a foot; thence north seventy-one degrees and thirty-seven minutes west a distance of one hundred and sixty-nine feet and four-tenths of a foot, more or less, to the point of beginning; the said parcel containing by admeasurement ninety-seven acres and thirty-seven hundredths of an acre, more or less, all the said bearings being astronomical and all according to the plan of the Copper King Mineral Claim and parts of the Britannia Fractional and Signorina Mineral Claims approved and confirmed by E. Deville, Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, on the twelfth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and of record in the Department of the Interior under Number Twenty-three thousand five hundred and fifty-two.

The Minister, therefore, recommends that the title to the lands herein described be vested in His Majesty King George the Fifth for the purposes of the Province of British Columbia under the terms of the agreement and Order in Council mentioned above.

The Committee concur in the foregoing and submit the same for approval.
